

Travel Directions for Dairy Cottage, 38c Midton Rd, Ayr, KA7 2SG

(1) By car

From the south, follow the A74/M74 (direction Glasgow) until Gretna. Then take the A75 to Dumfries, the A76 to Cumnock and the A70 to Ayr. An interesting alternative is the scenic Galloway Tourist Route along the A713 from Dumfries

From the north, travel south towards Glasgow and join the M77/A77. At the junction between the A77 and the A70, turn right into Ayr.

Stay on Holmston Road (A70) all the way into Ayr - the River Ayr is on the right.

At a large double roundabout (opposite the station) turn LEFT & then immediately RIGHT.

The road crosses the railway line into Ayr town centre.

At the PETROL STATION, follow the one way system round to the LEFT; go down the hill, turn LEFT at the traffic lights into Beresford Terrace; after 100 metres fork RIGHT at the school into Midton Road.

Continue along Midton Road for 200 metres, take the road down the left hand side of the St Columba's Church (Carrick Park), after 100 metres turn into the opening in the wall on the right hand side. Park here. There are 3 houses opposite the parking. With these houses on your left, continue on foot 100m and you will see a big square latticed window in a gable end in front of you. This is Dairy Cottage. Turn right and you will be in a courtyard. The front door is on your left.

(2) By Train

Ayr is on a main line from Glasgow (Central Station). Trains run every 30 minutes (60 minutes on Sunday in winter) and the journey takes about 45 minutes

From Ayr Station it is 400 metres to Church Cottage.

- Taxis wait on the main road outside (short journey)

- On foot - cross the square; pass the Odeon cinema; turn left in front of the Royal Bank of Scotland (into Beresford Terrace); and follow the pavement; after 100 metres fork right at the old school into Midton Road; continue along Midton Road for 100 metres, take the road down the left hand side of the St Columba's Church (Carrick Park), after 100 metres turn into the opening in the wall on the right hand side. Park here. There are 3 houses opposite the parking. With these houses on your left, continue on foot 100m and you will see a big square latticed window in a gable end in front of you. This is Dairy Cottage. Turn right and you will be in a courtyard. The front door is on your left.

(3) From Prestwick Airport to Church Cottage is about 5 miles.

(a) By Car: Turn left on leaving the Airport & travel straight through the towns of Prestwick and Ayr. Approaching Ayr town centre, when you see the Lidl shop on the right, prepare to turn right at the large roundabout with the Police Station on the corner - turn right. Then turn left, cross the River Ayr and go straight through the town centre. When the shops finish, go 1 more mile along a tree lined road; the Ellisland Hotel is on a corner on the left – turn left there into Bellevue Road; go to the top and turn right into Midton Road. Continue along Midton Road for 100 metres, take the road down the left hand side of the St Columba's Church (Carrick Park), after 100 metres turn into the opening in the wall on the right hand side. Park here. There are 3 houses opposite the parking. With these houses on your left, continue on foot 100m and you will see a big square latticed window in a gable end in front of you. This is Dairy Cottage. Turn right and you will be in a courtyard. The front door is on your left.

(b) By Train :

From the Station at Prestwick Airport to Ayr Station is a 5 minute journey. Trains run every 30 minutes (60 minutes on Sundays in winter). Then see under (2) above

(4) From Glasgow Airport (about 40 miles)

By Car : leave the Airport on the M8 following the signs to Glasgow City Centre & Kilmarnock. Next leave the M8 at Junction 24 and follow the signs to Kilmarnock. After a short but slow journey through built up areas, you should join the M77 to Kilmarnock & Ayr. Then follow the directions above for car travel under (1) above.

By Train: From the Airport, get to Paisley Station either by taking the shuttle bus or a taxi (approximately 10 minutes). Trains from Paisley to Ayr run every 30 minutes (60 minutes on Sunday in winter and the journey takes about 40 minutes. From Ayr Station follow the directions under (2) above.